Notes on results

The “Remarks” Column shows an E where a competitor was early at Crealy Park. The control here was laid out so that competitors could park up and wait in the warm for their official arrival time. Despite this, some 75% of the starters signed in early. Competitors are reminded that the “Three-Quarters” rule applies ONLY when making up lateness. (SSRSectionO) In this instance no penalty will be applied, but consider yourselves warned – Read The Instructions.....

Late runners are shown in the remarks column thus“LC>10”; where L=Late, C or F for Crealy Park or Finish and >10 = more than 10 minutes ie outside Gold Medal standard; >20 outside Silver Medal standard; >30 Outside Bronze Medal standard. (SSR Section G) Lateness is only shown where it affects the competitor’s Medal.

Official Lateness was calculated by taking the average recorded time 10 competitors in front and 10 competitors behind each runner, with the earliest and latest times from the group removed to eliminate any statistical anomalies. Thus, lateness is only calculated on late arrival beyond this average.

One competitor was excluded for running on Trade Plates in contradiction of SSR Section K (not to mention the Road Traffic Act)

Fifth Gear

The Fifth Gear TV film crews would like to thank every single marshal they came across. Everyone went out of their way to make their lives easy, helping with parking their vehicles, picking out the best spots and ensuring they were safe. The marshals were absolutely fantastic. The TV crews want the marshals to know how much they appreciated their help.

Our understanding is that the 2015 Exeter Trial will feature in a series of three Fifth Gear programmes, a 6 minute slot in each programme, which will go out in March on the History Channel to be repeated in the summer on Channel5
