STAN COX.

On March 10th 1982 Camel Vale Motor Club Ltd lost one of its staunchest members with the sudden death of Stan Cox, affectionately known as “Stan, Stan the chainsaw man” due to his overwhelming enthusiasm in clearing trials sections with his trusty chainsaw, mainly in the forests of Dunmere and Cardinham, close to where he was born and very close to his heart.

In memory of this great man his very close friends Gerald and Pat Thomas donated a trophy to be awarded annually and to be known as “The Stan Cox Memorial Trophy”. This award is presented to the best Camel Vale member on Index of Performance basis on the results of the two forest trials, the Camel Heights in March in Dunmere and the Bodmin Trial in November in Cardinham.

The Stan Cox Memorial Trophy will be awarded on aggregate index of performance figures for both events.
