The Bodmin Trial held in the Cardinham forest complex. After scrutineering and signing on had taken place we proceeded to our collection point to await a fairly punctual start for which I was grateful as by now I was getting rather cold. We were to start our assault on Hill No. 5, Hoskin Hill. I had to follow an Imp driven by Bob Barrow in case we couldn't follow the seemingly complicated map provided. After cleaning Hill 5 I thought I was going to have a good day. This was not quite so as I failed the next hill, barely leaving the start line. The next few sections were not so bad although I didn't clean very many. By the time we reached Hill 9, where all classes were to regroup together, it was again getting cooler. It was here where we had a long wait in the queue but we didn't let it spoil our day. We started section 10, where again I didn't get off the line, although this time I wasn't so disappointed as the previous car was a Marlin which didn't move off the line either.

I soon reached the first Special Test, although simple, I still got it wrong by overshooting line B. After completing the remaining sections and Special Test I loaded my Beetle back on the trailer and proceeded to the finish at St. Lawrences Hospital where we all tucked into some rather welcomed food. This completed an excellent day's trialling with the superb sections, so I would like to thank the organisers for a great event.

There are still a few of last years advertisers who have yet to respond for the 1991 advertising. Remember your advert and cheque must be with Roge Hoskin by Christmas Day. Prices once again are £32 for full page and £20 for 1/2 page and both include 1991 membership which isn't shown on the receipt.

Contd. ... I must now thank the organisers for such an enjoyable trial and shall be back next year hoping to have climbed up the ladder a bit.

I must also thank Mark Kessell/Simon Vage and Bill Vanstone/Gordon Tremear for the use of their foot pumps, as well as anybody else we scrounged from.

The Regs. for the South Coast Trial are enclosed with this newsletter. The start is at the Highway Garage, Tywardreath - first car starts at 8.30 (scrutineering starts at 8am) and the finish is at Lostwithiel. The organisers would be most grateful for any help you can give with clearing out sections and also PR work prior to the event. If you may be able to help in either way, please contact Terry Bray (C.O.C.) on Bodmin 873646 or Ron Barrett (Secretary) on Bodmin 851095 or Lucy Thompson on Bodmin 873607.

Any help would be greatly appreciated.
